BOWLING: LC North defeats Ford boys

Richmond beats Armada in EMHSBC

The Macomb Daily Sports Staff
MAC RED DIVISION

Frankly speaking, he could not have bowled any better.

Although the L'Anse Creuse North bowlers defeated Ford 21.5-8.5, that result certainly can't be pinned on Ford's Frank Radtke. Radtke bowled a 300 game and combined that with a 236 for a 536. Leading LCN were Justin Clark 233-235 468 and Ryan Driscoll 200-204 404.

In other boys' bowling matches, Eisenhower defeated Romeo 18-12 and Utica got past Stevenson 22-8.

Leading Ike were Kevin Craft 246-247 493 and Kevin Moore 204-203 407. Pacing Romeo was Dylan Stokes 246-201 447. Topping Utica were Anthony Mazza 255-231 486 and Max Geisendorfer 234-234 468. Stevenson's leading bowler was Vince Papais 256-270 526.

In girls' bowling, it's time to forget Jim Croce's Leroy Brown. The baddest Bulldog around seems to be Kayla Koster, who had an outstanding 225-245 470 in Romeo's 17-13 loss to Eisenhower. Pacing Eisenhower were Taylor Dewile 198-224 422 and Liz Ireland 169-201 379.

Stevenson defeated Utica 26-4. Leading Stevenson were Kelly Vandenbrooks 242-193 435 and Kelsie Reverski 205-203 408. Heather Rochon of Utica rolled a 223.

L'Anse Creuse North defeated Ford with a roll off 15-15 (94-54). Leading LCN were Christine Kowalski 168-202 370 and Stephanie Thomas 203-166 369. Pacing Ford was Melissa Lucas 243-167 410.

EMHSBC

Payton Dickson had a 267 game, Heather Bruci had a 180-176/356 series and Noelle Scheuer had 223-198/421 to lead Richmond past Armada. Stephanie Eickholdt had a 210 game for the Tigers in the Eastern Michigan High School Bowling Conference match.

Jason McKelvey had 215-231/446 as Almont defeated Dryden 28-2 in boys action.

Kyle Alexandrowski had a 254 game and Andrew Hook a 215 as Memphis defeated Yale 26-4.

Imlay City beat Croswell-Lexington 26-4.
