'Super Bowl for Super Noah' a super success

Sunday, Jan. 30, was a day of tremendous community outreach as the Romeo High School Bowling team held the "Super Bowl for Super Noah" event.

Summit Sports Center in Romeo was packed full of big hearts and plenty of smiles for a fundraising effort for the Costa family.

The team was thankful to proprietor Ray Kalinowski and his staff for providing the venue and making it such a fun-filled day. Super Noah was in attendance, enjoying Tomato and Basil pizza and a slushie.

Noah probably only bowled a few frames, his friends and a large group of teenage girls occupied much of his time. There were many great prizes, including a Rodney Stuckey autographed jersey, a Kid Rock autographed T-shirt and generous donations making up 12 baskets that were raffled off to raise money. RedHouse Salon was also a major contributor to the event, supplying over 15 gift certificates for haircuts, massages and spa visits.

The Romeo High School bowling team competes in the MAC Red Division with varsity and junior varsity teams for both boys and girls. Students are encouraged to inquire about joining the team, with spring and summer developmental clinics scheduled.

Bowling experience is not necessary. Contact Mr. Nelson at Romeo High School for information.
